

Colorado Stage & Express Co.

The Colorado Stage and Express Company began operation in February 1877 hauling freight, mail and passengers between Canon City, Silver Cliff and Rosita. This was valuable service to all the towns and silver mining operations in the Wet Mountain during the 1880's.

Colorado Stage & Express Route

Rosita, Colorado ~ November 14, 1880

Letter to Benjamin J. Roberts Jr. North Cluli, Monroe County, New York with black octagon date stamp, 3 cent green Banknote with target cancel. A fully illustrated bluish green advertising cover featuring a six horse team drawing Concorde Coach Ex-Engert